

Festival of Children Foundation

About

Festival of Children Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

Founded in 2003 by Sandy Segerstrom Daniels, a leading business professional and children's advocate who saw an opportunity to bring charities together to collaborate.

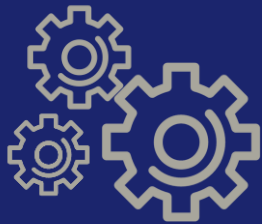

Our organization fosters collaboration within a network of charities, companies, organizations and individuals.

100% of administrative costs are covered by committed funding allowing donations to go further in direct support of our programs that are offered at no cost to our member charities so they can dedicate more funds to directly improving and enriching the lives of youth and families.

Festival of Children Foundation

At a Glance

Festival of Children Foundation works to improve the lives of children by fostering collaboration within a network of charities, companies, organizations and individuals.

We Strengthen the Network

The power of our organization lies in our ability to bring charities, companies, organizations and individuals together and use the strength of our numbers to effect change.

We Raise Awareness

We shine a spotlight on the most critical issues facing children today and help our members to better address them by engaging the general public.

We Provide Financial Support

We connect those with the vision to improve the lives of children to those with the resources to make it happen. We identify, fund and follow initiatives that have the greatest impact – with an eye that brings charities together collaboratively.

Festival of Children Foundation

Our Focus

We serve charities across the United States who are diverse in mission, thought, geography and size. Yet they all share a common goal—to improve the lives of children.

The charities we support are divided into five focus areas:

- Arts & Culture
- Health & Wellness
- Education & Development
- Environmental Education
- Social Services

The charities in our network impact 37 million children or 50% of our nation's kids.

Why Partner with Festival of Children Foundation?

Your Impact Is Maximized

Our programs are designed to efficiently use resources to make the most positive impact and are scalable with further investment from like-minded partners.

Our programs raise millions of dollars for innovative programs and cultivate new donors for the long-term sustainability of charities.

Our programs deliver knowledge-building and skills sets that are vital for non-profit leadership to become better managers, savvier fundraisers, and leaders that are adept at meeting the challenges of a volatile economy and an evolving fundraising landscape.

Our programs bring charities to the attention of millions of people so they educate the public about the important work they are doing, conduct donor outreach, recruit volunteers and seek collaborative opportunities with likeminded organizations and individuals.
